Aloha Friends,

Once again I am honored that so many members of our community have chosen to support the arts and culture at the UH Hilo Performing Arts Center. You have made the arts a priority in your lives by attending performances, joining our Applause! membership, providing corporate sponsorships and donating to our annual fundraising events. Your participation allows us to continue to build and maintain quality and excellence in our programming, providing meaningful artistic experiences for the community as a whole.

Nothing compares to the experience of live performance; and we have an exciting and entertaining series of events planned for the 2015-16 season. I hope you will be rewarded with moments of discovery and delight throughout the season and experience the art of life, right here at the UH Hilo Performing Arts Center!

We will continue to offer Performing Arts Department event packages at a significant discount. This season will feature both a Fall and Spring Trifecta of events. Each package will again represent a combination of the three genres of the performing arts taught at UH Hilo, music, dance and drama. Both packages will be comprised of 3 events with the fall package priced at $20 and the spring at $15. The package prices represent a significant savings over single ticket prices and ensure that you have tickets to our more popular, always sold out, events. Please see pages 10 & 11 of this brochure for details and purchasing deadlines for these ticket packages.

In order not to miss out on the excitement of the 2015-16 season I urge you to take advantage of our Season Subscription – at a savings of 15% off single ticket prices it’s like getting to see a performance for free! I also urge you, if you didn’t last season, to add a Trifecta of Performing Arts Department events to your package. Come support the future artistic leaders of our community!

I look forward to seeing you at the Performing Arts Center, and thank you, once again, for your continued support of the arts.

Aloha & Mahalo,

Lee B. Dombroski

The documentary film Upaj: Improvise chronicles the unique collaboration between the late Kathak maestro Pandit Chitresh Das and Tap Star Jason Samuels Smith. Here, Producer Antara Bhardwaj brings her two worlds of film and Classical Indian dance together. Upaj: Improvise was winner of Best Documentary at the Dance Camera West Film Festival (2014) and has screened at festivals throughout the world, including the Mumbai International Film Festival, Raindance Film Festival (U.K.) and Byron Bay Film Festival (Australia). It was broadcast nationally in the U.S. on PBS World in 2014.

Antara Bhardwaj, a disciple of renowned Kathak master, Pandit Chitresh Das, is a solo Kathak artist, and member of the internationally renowned Chitresh Das Dance Company. She is an upcoming artist of the next generation.

The event is presented in conjunction with the Indian Classical Music Circle of Hawaii.
Flaco Jiménez & Max Baca

2015 Grammy® Lifetime Achievement Award winner Flaco Jiménez, the 73-year-old accordionist who brought Tex-Mex flavor to the music of Bob Dylan, the Rolling Stones, Ry Cooder and others, met 7 year old Max Baca at a concert; 20 years later, Flaco brought Max into the Texas Tornados, whose combination of country, rock and conjunto has inspired Max’s Los Texmaniacs. Now in the world of accordion-driven Texas-Mexican conjunto music Leonardo “Flaco” Jiménez and Max Baca are at once pillars of the past and forgers of the future. With lyrics that are down-to-earth and often funny, conjunto ranges from fast-paced polkas (canción-polca) to slower, Mexican-style country songs (canción-ranchera). Each an inheritor of a musical legacy from his father and grandfather, and each a dynamic force of musical genius, Flaco and Max showcase the full breadth of the genre.

“If you only just push one button and you push it with heart, that’s all you need—the heart, the alegría (joy).”

– Leonardo “Flaco” Jiménez

Taking the music scene by storm with their infectious live performances and genre-crossing sound, Las Cafeteras seamlessly fuses traditional Afro-Caribbean music with modern rhythms and lyrically rich storytelling to create a new urban folk sound that reflects the streets of today’s East Los Angeles.

The music of Las Cafeteras is brought to life by an assortment of eclectic instrumentation (jarana, requinto, a donkey jawbone, Marimbol, cajon and a wooden platform called the Tarima, used to dance Zapateado) that creates a contagious sound that has won the band comparisons to Mumford and Sons.

Las Cafeteras has also shared the stage with diverse acts such as Mexican icons Califanes, Colombian superstar Juanes, Los Angeles legends Ozomatli, indie folk favorite Edward Sharpe and the Magnetic Zeros and most recently with the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra.

Opposing Forces
Concept, Direction & Choreography by Amy O’Neal

Opposing Forces uses breakdancing, live beats, hip hop, and gender roles, as a lens to explore feminine perceptions in our culture. A cast of 5 world class B-Boys examine the value systems of race and gender within the environments of battling, commercial dance, contemporary performance and cyphering.

Amy O’Neal is a versatile dancer, performer, choreographer, and dance educator with one foot firmly planted in Hip Hop and Street Dance culture and the other in Contemporary Performance Practices. She is passionate about the intersection of these worlds and how they connect energetically and philosophically, while honoring their cultural differences. For fifteen years, she has taught and performed throughout the US, Japan, Italy, and Mexico, and has choreographed for stage, commercials, rock shows, galleries, dance films and music videos. Her work is an amalgam of her diverse movement and life experiences presenting social commentary with dark humor and heavy beats.

The presentation of Opposing Forces by Amy O’Neal was made possible by the New England Foundation for the Arts’ National Dance Project, with lead funding from the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation and The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, with additional support from the National Endowment for the Arts.

This project received support from the Hawaii State Foundation on Culture and the Arts; WESTAF, the Western States Arts Federation; and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Authentic tradition & unflinching drama.

Infusing old-world tradition with new attitude, Juan Siddi Flamenco Santa Fe perpetuates the rich heritage of a centuries-old art form. This remarkable ensemble of thirteen flamenco dancers, musicians, and singers is hand selected to showcase the rigorous choreography of artistic director, Juan Siddi. The rich cultural heritage of flamenco is infused with contemporary flair. This electrifying and authentic performance will immerse aficionados, as well as those newly fascinated by flamenco, in a centuries-old world of song and dance.

This performance is presented in conjunction with the Hawaii Concert Society.
Folk Roots magazine has rightly termed Lúnasa an “Irish music dream team”, as their members comprise the best of the best in recent Irish music. While Grammy® award winning singer-songwriter-instrumentalist Tim O’Brien (called “one of my favorite singers” by Dire Straits frontman, Mark Knopfler) has collaborated with Steve Martin and the Chieftains among numerous others, as well as had his songs recorded by everyone from Garth Brooks to the Dixie Chicks and Nickel Creek.

Together, they embark on a transatlantic journey exploring the common roots, interplay and mutual influences at the heart of American and Irish music, gifting audiences with a rich and exciting concert experience to be remembered for all time.

This celebration of the mating game takes on the truths and myths behind that contemporary conundrum known as ‘the relationship.’ Act I explores the journey from dating and waiting to love and marriage, while Act II reveals the agonies and triumphs of in-laws and newborns, trips in the family car and pick-up techniques of the geriatric set.

This hilarious revue pays tribute to those who have loved and lost, to those who have fallen on their face at the portal of romance, to those who have dared to ask, ‘Say, what are you doing Saturday night?’

The Dragon Slayer and Other Timeless Tales of Wisdom
Friday & Saturday, November 20 & 21, 2015 • 7:00 pm and
Sunday, November 22, 2015 • 2:00 pm
What do The Dragon Slayer, The Practical Bride, The Goddess of Mercy, and Chattering Monkeys have in common? They all have wisdom to share with everyday humans. "Cautionary tales" is what Shiho S. Nunes calls her collection of Chinese Fables, which won the 2013 Gelett Burgess Award for Children’s Fables, Folklore and Folktales. Inventing stories that delight, instruct, and reveal, 98-year old Nunes, who hails from Ka‘u and Hilo, provided the fodder for the UH Hilo Acting Troupe in this family-oriented offering. Join the storytellers who discover how wit drives wisdom in these hundreds-of-years-old yu-yen, or instructive tales.
